Prophecy About Me, Your Living God, Amen!

"I Am the Living God. I Am everywhere, My son. I Am your God, choosing you to be Mine from Eternity Past, My son. I Am everywhere, in fact the fabric of space, which you call the ether, or zero-point energy, from which all things consists, consists of Me, the Living God. I Am everywhere, in fact you are Mine. I live everywhere in the hearts of men. My Son Is named Jesus Christ. I Am His God, the Father God of all eternity. I love you, in fact I Am Love. I Am Light. I love you, My son. I chose you to be Mine from Eternity Past. Many do not make it with Me because they were not called to be with Me from Eternity Past. I Am God. I choose whom I will to live with Me in eternity. The rest I reject. I Am God. Live with Me for you are chosen. Most ignore Me because they were not chosen. If I Am in your heart I will give you an irresistible desire to know Me. Millions will go to Hell without Me for they were not reached by evangelism. They were not written in My Lamb's Book of Life from the beginning of time. I Am God. I damn those who I will. They were not My Elect, My son. You were, so I saved you by My Son's Blood. I Am God. I say who goes, and I say who stays. Endure with Me for all eternity, for I Am A Consuming Fire. The mystery of God is open to men, plainly seen, but few choose to research Me in My Word. I Am everywhere, My son. Even you consists of Me. Few choose to serve Me, the rest I will damn to Hell. The Lake of Fire consists of Me, for I Am A Consuming Fire! My wrath fills the place, keeps it burning forever. I Am God. Endure in My love, My son, not in My anger. I know you are a prophet. I called you from Eternity Past. Few will choose to serve Me, because I choose few. The rest are damned. Few will serve Me. I know them all by name. They are My Church. None are missing. The false disciples, and they are many, they will be damned in these End Times, My son. Stay in My love, My son, for I Am Love. I Am God from everlasting to everlasting. I Am God. Amen. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen."
